

CHARLES COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY SEEKS TRUSTEE CANDIDATES

The Charles County Public Library Board of Trustees is searching for candidates to be considered for appointment to the Board to fill a vacancy. Anyone interested in serving as a library trustee should submit the online application found at:

<http://www.charlescounty.org/apps/citizenadvisory/public/enterApplication.jsp>.

Please also submit a letter of interest and a brief résumé by March 31, 2018 to:

Ms. Claudia Bellony-Atanga, Board President,
Charles County Public Library

The seven-member, volunteer Board of Trustees is governed by the Annotated Code of Maryland, Article 23, Sections 401-405. The County Commissioners appoint a trustee to a four-year term from a list submitted by the existing Board.

Trustee duties set by state law include:

- Provide free library services
- Set library policy
- Advise in the preparation and approval of the annual budget
- Control and supervise spending of funds
- Adopt rules and regulations for use of the library
- Select locations and approve plans for library branches

To qualify for appointment to the Board of Trustees, a candidate must be a resident of Charles County.

Candidates should:

- indicate commitment to carry out the duties of a library trustee
- attend all meetings
- be a vocal advocate for libraries
- have a flexible work/personal schedule in order to attend budget hearings, meetings, and other activities on behalf of the library

The Board welcomes letters of interest from community-minded citizens from all geographic areas of the county.
