

Official Statement(s)
RE: Straight-Talk Sex Ed for Teens Program

The Charles County Public Library will not be holding the sex education programs for teens or adult as planned. The library is working to obtain appropriate instructors and community input for future programs of this subject matter.